

SPRING

Name That Flower

Match each flower clue to its correct flower name!

- A. A bright yellow flower that is commonly seen in gardens during the early spring. It has trumpet-shaped petals and is often a symbol of new beginnings.
- B. This flower comes in a variety of colors and is known for its cup-shaped petals. It blooms in early spring and is often associated with Holland.
- C. Known for its delicate, bell-shaped white flowers, this plant blooms in the spring and is often found in woodland areas. It has a sweet fragrance.
- D. A small, colorful flower that blooms in early spring. They come in various colors, including pink, yellow, purple, and white, and often have a bright, cheerful look.
- E. A small flower that often appears in late winter or early spring, usually in shades of purple, yellow, or white. It's one of the first flowers to bloom after snow melts.
- F. Large, often fragrant flowers with soft, ruffled petals, typically in shades of pink, red, and white. These flowers bloom in late spring and are popular in gardens.
- G. A tall flower that comes in a range of colors, most commonly purple, blue, and yellow. It has unique, frilly petals and is often associated with the symbol of royalty.
- H. This flower has vibrant petals in red, purple, blue, and white and blooms in early spring. It's also known as the "windflower" because it sways easily in the breeze.
- I. Known for its drooping, bell-shaped flowers that are usually blue or purple. It's commonly found in woodlands and creates a beautiful carpet of color in spring.
- J. A fragrant flower that comes in colors like pink, purple, blue, and white. It blooms in clusters and has a strong, sweet scent.

- ___ 1. Tulip
- ___ 2. Daffodil
- ___ 3. Crocus
- ___ 4. Lily of the Valley
- ___ 5. Hyacinth
- ___ 6. Peony
- ___ 7. Iris
- ___ 8. Primrose
- ___ 9. Anemone
- ___ 10. Bluebell

Name That Flower
ANSWER KEY

1. B
2. A
3. E
4. C
5. J
6. F
7. G
8. D
9. H
10. I