

Winter

WRITING PROMPTS

Describe the best snow day you ever had. What adventures did you go on?

Write about a baking competition with your friends. What cookies do you make, and who wins?

If you could ask Santa for three things, what would they be and why?

Imagine you can talk to winter animals. What stories do they tell you?

Write about the most creative snowman you've ever built. What special features does it have?

You discover a hidden elf workshop. What do you see, and what do the elves ask you to help with?

Imagine celebrating Christmas in a different country. What unique traditions would you experience?

Write a story about getting lost in a magical winter wonderland. What do you find?

Write a story about a snowflake that doesn't want to melt. What adventure does it go on?

Pretend you're in charge of designing a new sled. What does it look like, and how does it work?

If you could spend the day with a penguin, what fun activities would you do together?

Write about a magical pair of ice skates that take you on an amazing adventure. Where do they lead?

Imagine you find a secret door hidden in an icy forest. What's on the other side?

Create a story about a snowball fight that gets a little out of hand. What happens?

You're invited to a hot cocoa party with talking animals. Who comes, and what do you talk about?

Describe your perfect winter day from start to finish. What makes it special?

Write a letter to Jack Frost asking him to bring more snow to your town. What do you say, and how does he respond?

Winter

WRITING PROMPTS

Pretend you're a polar bear cub exploring the Arctic for the first time. What do you discover?

Imagine you're in charge of decorating the biggest Christmas tree in the world. What decorations do you use?

Write about a winter carnival where all the games and rides are made of ice and snow.

If you could live in an igloo, what would it look like inside, and how would you stay warm?

Write a story about a snowstorm that brings a town together in a surprising way.

Imagine you could visit the North Pole. What do you see, and who do you meet?

Create a new winter holiday. What is it called, and how do people celebrate it?

Write about a group of elves who accidentally deliver the wrong gifts. How do they fix the mistake?

Pretend you're a snowman that comes to life at night. What do you do while everyone is asleep?

Imagine a winter sports competition between animals like penguins, polar bears, and seals. Who wins, and what events do they compete in?

Write a story about discovering a magical mitten that grants you winter-themed wishes. What do you wish for?

Pretend you're hosting a winter sleepover for your friends. What fun activities and snacks do you plan?

Create a recipe for the ultimate winter treat. What ingredients do you use, and why is it so special?

Write about a magical reindeer that gets lost. How do you help it find its way home?

Imagine you can control the weather for one winter day. What kind of weather do you create, and how do you enjoy it?

If you could invent your own winter activity, what would it be? How do you play it?

What's your favorite thing to do in the snow? Write about a fun day playing outside.