

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of four diverse children dressed as chefs. They are all smiling and looking towards the viewer. The child on the far left is a boy with dark skin and short dark hair, wearing a white chef's coat with a red bow and a tall white chef's hat. He holds a large blue spoon. Next to him is a girl with light skin and dark hair, also in a white chef's coat with a red bow and a tall white chef's hat. She holds a large blue spoon. In the center is a boy with light skin and red hair, wearing a white chef's coat with a red bow and a tall white chef's hat. He holds a large blue spoon. On the far right is a girl with dark skin and dark hair tied in a bun, wearing a white chef's coat with a red bow and a tall white chef's hat. She holds a large blue spoon. The background is filled with various kitchen items, including bottles of oil, a whisk, and a rolling pin, all rendered in a simple, colorful style.
